13 Student feedback mechanism on Institution Governance/ faculty performance

The management of the Institute believes in Total quality management and it defines it through a systematic approach of feedback being then in mid of semester and end semester. The class is represented through Faculty Class Coordinator and Student Class representative who are concerned with sorting out routine class issues and executing the plan of action.

14. Grievance redressal mechanism for faculty, staff and students :

The services as per the standards of the AICTE norms and Institutional norms are provided and various committees are available for redressal of any grievances arising out of unsatisfactory service. Each employee of Institute is briefed about the grievance redressal mechanism. Emphasis is paid on prompt action after the hearing of a grievance by the specific committee.

All the employees assist Institute in discharge of its functions in a better manner by ensuring timely compliance of the duties enjoined upon them by the rules and regulations of the Institute. For their part, person seeking the Institute's services should also ensure that whenever they seek a service from the Institute, all the requirements for providing it are satisfied at the application stage itself.

The address of the Grievance Officer of the Institute is :

Registrar

Amrapali Group of Institutes

Shiksha Nagar, Lamachaur

Haldwani (Nainital)

Ph.No-05946-238203

registrar@amrapali.ac.in

Any person not satisfied by any service of Institute, or aggrieved by any other action or an action by the Institute, can seek redressal of her/his grievances through concerned officer. Every such person shall be entitled to be informed about the action taken on his / her grievance within a period of 30 days from the date on which the complaint is received.

If any member of the public / Institute desire to meet the Grievance Officer in connection with their Grievances, they can do so without any prior appointment on all working days between 3.00 to 4.00 PM in his/her Office.

The institute has provided a suggestion box within the campus where anyone who wishes to offer suggestions for improvement of the services provided by the Institute, can drop them in the suggestion box.
